Area Towns Mourn Death Of President Kennedy

This area, in common with other communities in the nation, has just come out of the dazed state in which it was plunged last Friday by the news of the assassination of President Kennedy.

Whether it was Mokena, Frankfort, New Lenox or Orland Park the reaction was the same. Incredible at first but finally convinced people tried to carry on with tasks or business and then gave up.

There was some conversation in business places but it was quiet talk. People appeared to be stunned. They moved about like sleepwalkers.

The day itself was in keeping with their feelings. There was a cold rain falling, driven by a cold wind.

"I feel cold inside too," said a farmer who heard the news when he reached Mokena on an errand. He listened to radio bulletins and then climbed into his truck and started home, the errand that brought him to town forgotten.

A carpenter working on the interior of a house finally gave up.

"I'm not doing any good here," he said and went home.

People clustered about radios and televisions and from the few persons one found abroad on Saturday, Sunday and Monday they must have remained there.

Little work was done on those days. People just didn't have the heart for it.

Shortly after the announcement came that the President was dead the flags on the postoffices the schools and those buildings where owners or tenants make a practice of displaying the Colors, were placed at half-staff.

Most meetings and social affairs scheduled for the week-end were cancelled. It seemed about the only thing anyone was able to do was to sit before a television set or hunched beside a radio.

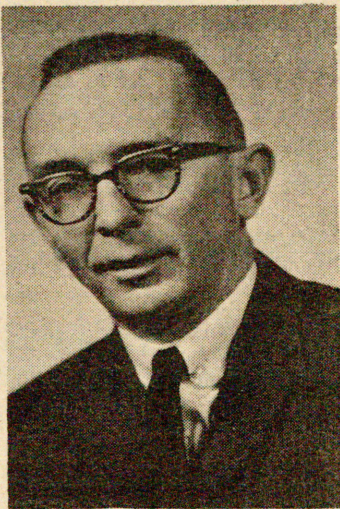

"My husband and I went to a movie in Chicago Friday," an Orland Park woman said, "and we didn't know what had happened until we got out. People looked so strange. We heard snatches of conversation that gave us a scanty idea of what happened. We tried to buy a newspaper but the stands were empty and we had to wait until new supplies were delivered before we were able to get any facts."

On Monday most of the business places and all of the schools in the area were closed. Some of the stores opened up late in the afternoon but some of them didn't bother.

Streets were practically deserted. It seemed that everyone was in front of a TV screen, making the pilgrimage from the capitol, to the White House, to the cathedral, and on to the former President's last resting place in Arlington.

The Orland Park village board in observance of the Day of Mourning did not meet Monday night.

By mid-week, however, things were almost normal again.

G. MERRILL COOPER, director of Lincoln-Way Savings & Loan Association, New Lenox, attended the U. S. Savings and Loan League annual convention at San Francisco. Mr. Cooper attended the many work sessions held at the convention and had the opportunity to exchange various ideas with men of considerable experience in the Savings and Loan industry.

Review Board To Take Complaints At New Lenox

The Will county board of review will have a representative at New Lenox Friday to receive complaints relative to valuations contained in the quadrennial assessment figures recently published.

The board of review member will use the New Lenox fire station as an office and will be there from 9:30 to 3:30 o'clock. Many property owners in the township have already filed objections to the valuations. It was said, taking their complaints to the court house. The review board is now circulating among the townships to accommodate those unable to get to Joliet, it was explained.

35th President

John Fitzgerald Kennedy

A GREAT AMERICAN DIES

It will be a week Friday, since John Fitzgerald Kennedy, the 35th President of the United States, was slain by an assassin at Dallas, Texas.

News of this horrifying event stunned the civilized world. Horror, bewilderment, shock and grief gripped all as word of the tragedy spread. It was as if some strange vacuum had been loosed, draining emotions and leaving people empty and dazed.

John F. Kennedy was a man who had captured the affections of the public. One might disagree with his political views and policies but at the same time like and admire the man. He was colorful, engaging and dynamic. He was an intelligent, shrewd leader -- an intellectual with the common touch. One couldn't help but like President Kennedy. Millions who had never seen him in person considered him as a personal friend.

That he had endeared himself to all people was demonstrated by the spontaneous tears evoked in all nations when news of his death was flashed over the air.

The late President was confronted with great and grave problems almost from the time he took office 34 months ago. He faced them with courage and fortitude.

The duties and responsibilities of the Presidency are terrific, physically as well as mentally. President Kennedy was further handicapped by a spinal injury incurred in college days, aggravated by his war service and further worsened by the grind of official rounds and the public demands upon his strength. As a result the late President suffered considerable pain but he kept it hidden and never hid behind it.

President Kennedy was a great American, a man devoted to the cause of peace, who endeavored to serve all according to his lights and aims. In time his place in history will be evaluated but there can be no dispute that he was a great leader, a man who loved people and in turn was loved by them.

Speaking for the people of the area we wish to extend the deepest and sincere sympathy to the family of our late President.

May his soul rest in peace and light perpetual shine upon him.

L-W Building Program Progressing Rapidly

Several areas in the large new addition to the high school building are rapidly being completed and immediately utilized by the various departments involved. The favorable weather encountered plus excellent contractors, accounted for completion ahead of the original schedule. One of the first areas nearly completed was the administrative addition. This section included several new offices, an enlarged nurse's room, facilities for the guidance dept., an office machine room with adequate storage, a general conference room along with a special room for the Board of Education. This special room will be used for many purposes such as P.T.G. Executive committee meetings, faculty departmental meetings and for the small groups during the day.

The new bus maintenance garage has now been finished with all equipment moved from the Industrial Arts department. This particular project had received priority in order to enable the large enrollments in the shop classes to proceed with their projects with adequate floor space. This bus building will accommodate three buses at the same time for normal maintenance. One stall will be for washing and greasing with the other two available for repair work. The two old spare buses will be stored inside this building during the severe weather in order to be available on case of an emergency. Last winter during the unusual cold weather, several students suffered minor frostbite injuries while waiting for their pickup.

The new addition to the kitchen is now about finished with some areas already being utilized. The entire area has been doubled in size in order to provide both more storage space and more cooking equipment. A new walk-in refrigerator has been added, insuring much more economical food handling along with space for the monthly federal surplus foods.

Two enlarged toilet and washrooms located between the auditorium and gym will be open and available for the opening of the basketball season. Since these were the only public restrooms, they were entirely inadequate.

During the Christmas vacation several of the classrooms, science lab and library will become available. Plans are being made for much of this actual moving process to occur during this school vacation. Girls and boys physical education classes will also be able to use their new areas including their classroom for health and safety. The girls area will be available for roller skating as an extra club program and after school hours. The floor itself is being installed a little different from the usual gym floor, which will prevent any damage when used for skating.

An open house will be held later in the school year when the entire project is completed and after more equipment and furnishings are secured.

Select New Lenox Youth For College 'Who's Who'

Wayne Klasing, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Klasing, 138 Oakview, New Lenox, was recently selected by Bradley university for membership in "Who's Who" for students in American universities and colleges. Klasing was one of 22 seniors from Bradley who received this high honor.

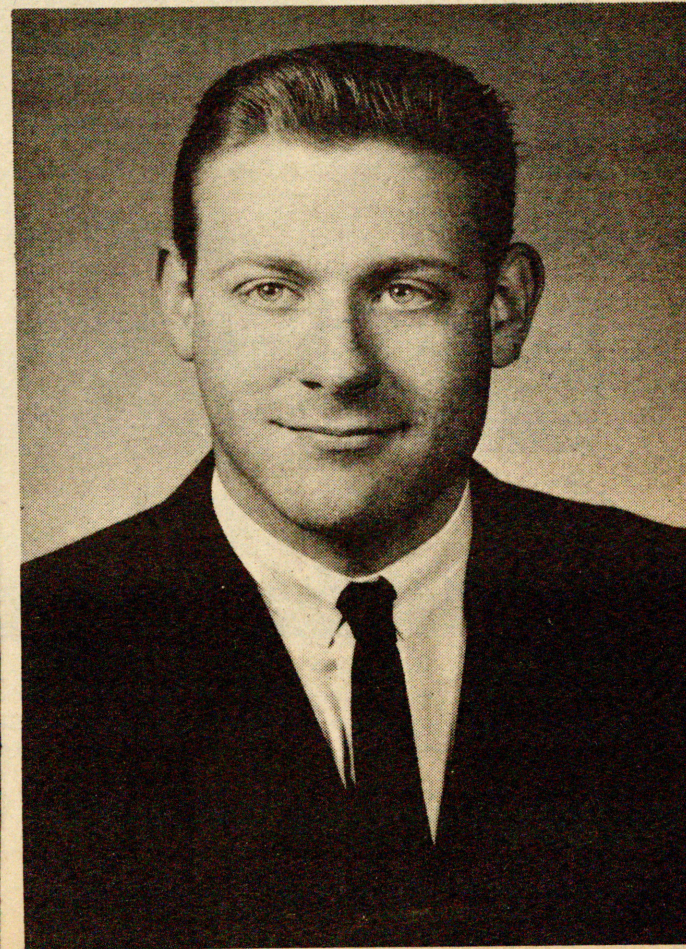

Bradley was eligible to pick 31 members but chose only 26 out of the 61 applications which four administrators and six screened. In choosing worthy candidates, the committee based their judgments on certain qualifications, including grade point average, participation in student government, publications, athletics, honoraries, and extra-curricular activities.

About 750 colleges and universities nominate students and the winners receive a certificate of recognition and the use of a free placement or reference service. The latter services assist the students in seeking employment, scholarships, and fellowships. Accounts of the accepted members' college careers will appear in the annual national publication.

"Who's Who" was created by an independent organization in Tuscaloosa, Ala., in the school year of 1934-35 to set up a basis of recognition for outstanding college students.

Klasing is majoring in engineering and has consistently been on the Dean's scholastic honor roll. While attending Lincoln-Way high school he was a member of the football team for four years and active in many of the extra-curricular club activities.

WAYNE KLASING

KAREN KORISTA, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Korista, R#1, New Lenox, a senior at Illinois State University in Normal, was recently pledged and initiated into Kappa Delta Epsilon, the honorary professional educational sorority at the university. To attain membership in the group, the young women must maintain high scholastic standing as well as ability and leadership in her particular field of education.

Kappa Delta Pi, an honor society in education for junior and senior men and women has also chosen Karen for membership. This society encourages high professional, intellectual and personal standards and recognizes outstanding contributions to the field of education. The members of this group are chosen strictly on the basis of grade-point average.

Karen graduated from Lincoln-Way high school, June, 1961.

HOMER NEWS

BY ELIZABETH ANDERSON

Homer School Club "put its best foot forward" Tuesday evening when it presented "Frosty Flurries" to an appreciative audience for the benefit of new school equipment for 33-C.

Miss Susan Cagwin played soft organ music while Mrs. Theresa Townsend and Mrs. Erma Drake narrated the stories of 50 interesting styles from Reiter's Country Casuals, as they were modeled by 23 local people. Footwear was from Reigel's Shoe Store. Many local businesses contributed to the expense fund.

During the intermission, the Homer Church Choir Trio entertained with several delightful numbers. They were accompanied by Miss Faye Rodgers. The rooms were prettily decorated under Mrs. Mildred Ohla's supervision, and dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Thomason and the committee members, Mrs. Ray Kennedy, who was the original refreshment committee chairman, was called away by the death of her mother, and Mrs. Thomason obligingly took her place. Mrs. J. J. Paddock was the ticket chairman.

Modeling the clothing were Mesdames Theresa Townsend and Erma Drake, Miss Susan Cagwin, Mesdames Mary Ann Adair, Mary K. Baltz, Frances Lauffer and Diana Hallis; also Miss Linda Defenbaugh, Mrs. Doris Erdman and Miss Pamela Gray, Mrs. Helen Kelm and Mrs. Sandra Broderick, Miss Dianne Moravec, Mrs. Mildred Olha, Mrs. Emily Carlson, Carol Berg and Arlene Welter; Misses Kathy Reiter and Maureen Kennedy, and Mrs. Bobbi Liens.

Now-buy a new electric dryer and save up to $60

In the next 60 days over 25,000 Chicagoland people will buy dryers—most will be flameless electric. Read why you should buy electric. Right now—and for a limited time only—Commonwealth Edison and Public Service Company, in cooperation with your dealer, offers you a chance to save as much as $60 on any new flameless electric dryer. (A cash bonus of $20 from Commonwealth Edison, plus up to $40 that you normally save when you buy an electric dryer instead of gas.) For the average family, this equals about 3 years of free drying!

And electricity is simplicity. Because there are few moving parts, electric dryers cost less to maintain. And with no pilot light, your dryer costs nothing when not in use. Clothes dried electrically also come out fresher and cleaner because there are no fumes, flames or products of combustion to mix with them. What's more, nothing dries clothes faster than today's electric dryers. (Only 26 to 30 minutes for a full load.)

See your dealer now for details. Satisfaction on any flameless electric dryer is guaranteed, of course.

NI-Gas Invites Public To View New Offices

Northern Illinois Gas Company will open its new General Office to the public, Sunday, December 1, from 2:00 to 5:00 P.M.

All NI-Gas friends and their families are invited to attend the open house at the new building, located at the East-West Tollway and Route #59, about five miles northeast of Aurora.

Visitors will be able to see and learn about the building's Total Energy System, the first in the United States. The fully automatic, natural gas total-energy system supplies all the energy needs of the building -- heating, cooling, and all electricity, including high frequency lighting.

The utility's new Electronic Data Processing Center also will be included in the tour of the facilities.

FDIC Files Complaint Involving Chatham Bank

Four men are charged with diverting some $5-million from the defunct Chatham bank of Chicago in a complaint filed in the Cook county circuit court last week by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

Those named in the complaint are Kenneth H. Katschke, Arthur Braun Sachs, Sherman Lawrence Kahn and Chris A. Huette.

Katschke is known in the area as the former president of the liquidated Tinley Park Savings and Loan Association and principal stockholder, as well as being active in various real estate developments. He also is listed as former chairman, director and executive committee chairman of Chatham, who allegedly sold his interest in that institution to Kahn last February. The FDIC charges in its complaint that Katschke retained control of the bank, however, thru stock ownership in Kratschke Land Development Co.

Sachs is known in the Orland Park area by reason of his frequent appearances before the village board there when plans were being made for the Orland Park Hills subdivision. Sachs was the attorney for some of the corporations involved.

He has his own law firm in Chicago and records also shows that he is president of more than 10 Illinois corporations. He is said to represent Kahn now and represented the Chatham bank when it was placed in FDIC receivership last August. The complaint also alleges that he represented Katschke at the same time.

Sachs is 44 years old and the

MAURICE P. ANGLAND

The assassination of President Kennedy was a heavy shock to the nation and to securities markets. Within minutes of the confirmation of death, the securities markets were closed. It was obvious in most brokerage offices, that a selling flood was hitting the markets. It was also quite evident that a goodly number of investors were selling with the idea that the excited and emotional selling would drive prices down and enable the re-purchase of the securities at a lower level and within a very short time. Some sold and placed buy orders to secure stocks that had been at a higher level as replacements of those sold. This had two effects if completed, - 1) offered an opportunity for taking tax loss, and 2) replacement of stock sold by a better grade substitute at a bargain price. Comparatively few of these plans were successful as the exchange closed too fast to permit execution of the orders to buy or sell.

The Governors of the exchange make every effort to conduct an orderly market and avoid gyrations generated by emotional reactions to sudden events. Usually results of such dramatic events will be in perspective within a few days and the markets resume an orderly tempo. However, such events usually offer the alert student, an opportunity to adjust his portfolio under favorable circumstances.

This column is being written prior to the Tuesday opening of the markets, but it is most unlikely that investors will act rashly after time to contemplate fact that business conditions of basic nature, are not easily changed. The practical fact is that there is to be a national election within a few months. To change basic policies of the government, would require prompt changes in personnel of considerable magnitude. The practical politician must avoid violent changes in direct at all costs as he knows well that such changes get out of control and do not make for orderly continuity. In our system of government, the group in power is often very close to the principal opposition on most subjects. Europeans often express opinion that we are a nation tending toward the conservative side in economic matters. At this time, our system, although frail in many ways, seems to have produced the best results for the average person.

During recent weeks, the securities markets have been on the weak side. Many analysts point out that the price structure advanced very fast and that a consolidation is inevitable. Many of these analysts in investment services are shouting that they predicted same. Close analysis of these predictions does not often reveal any basis of claim to omniscience.

A few days ago, the current reasons given for the decline, was disappointing sales figures for the auto industry. Calmer analysis revealed that auto dealers had very low inventories of new cars and popular models were not available to delivery. Only one maker was cutting back production due to slow sales and this was not unexpected - Studebaker. This firm has had a smaller dealer organization than is usually thought advisable.

New car sales exceeded previous October by about 6 per cent. Output of cars was the highest in history, for week ended November 6.

Arbury Hills

Few Supporters Turn Out For Baseball Meeting

469-5740

On Nov. 12, the Arbury Hills baseball league held its regular general monthly membership meeting at the school.

Ten persons were present for the meeting. This was a far cry from the number of people which had been anticipated considering the distribution of a flyer to every house, and the announcement in the paper prior to this meeting in an attempt to attract some attention to this organization.

For the benefit of the regular members of this organization and also the potential visitors who were unable to attend this meeting for one reason or other, a resume follows.

Those attending were enlightened on the subject of the Tri-County Baseball league, and the possibility of affiliation of Arbury Hills Baseball League into this organization.

If the Arbury Hills Baseball League were to join the Tri-County, it would mean that the league would have to select a total of 15 boys between the ages of nine thru 12, to represent Arbury Hills in a traveling league.

The highlights of this talk have been taken into consideration and will be discussed at later dates, before arriving at a decision.

The Arbury Hills Baseball League would like to thank Gerald Francis, the guest speaker of the evening, from Frankfort, for bringing the league this interesting talk and invitation.

There were two regular women from the Women's Auxiliary to the Baseball League present at the meeting. The ladies informed the membership that there had been a few volunteers by telephone, but not as much response as had been hoped for. There is still a great need for further volunteers to help with the refreshments in the spring.

There were two new people welcomed into the group; James Hoyer, and Gene Mejdich, who has volunteered to serve as an umpire for the games. There is an urgent need for more men to volunteer for duty as umpires.

This is a very worthwhile organization, and more help is needed by the group. How about having more new faces attending the next meeting of the Arbury Hills Baseball League which will be held at the school on Dec. 10, at 8:00 p.m. at the Arbury Hills School.

The Arbury Hills Kindergarten Organization held its regular general monthly membership meeting at the school on Tuesday, evening, Nov. 19.

There will be a Christmas party for the kindergarten children on Dec. 20, the last day of school before the Christmas recess.

The kindergarten class will observe the same Christmas vacation as the remainder of the grammar school classes.

There will be no general membership meeting for the month of December. There will, however, be a board of directors meeting held during the month of December. The next general monthly membership meeting will be held at the school on Tuesday evening, Jan. 21, at 8:30 p.m.

The organization wishes to thank Mrs. Mary Farnham, one of its members, on the donation of dolls for use in the kindergarten class. There will now be clothes purchased for these dolls.

Mrs. Klein from the state of Illinois department of day care licensing, spent Friday, Nov. 22 at the kindergarten examining the medical records of the children in the kindergarten class.

The Arbury Hills Civic Association will hold their regular general monthly membership meeting at the school on Tuesday evening, Dec. 3, at 8 o'clock in the all-purpose room.

The First Nighters will hold their December session at the home of Mrs. Byron Skinner of 19339 South Oak Street next Thursday evening, beginning at 8 o'clock.

The Teens club held its second meeting for November at the school on Monday evening, Nov. 18. There was to be the election of six council members at this meeting. However, due to the absence of several members, the election was postponed until the first meeting in December.

The hay Ride for the Teens club, was held in Mokena on Friday evening, Nov. 15. The large turnout of young people necessitated the use of two hay racks.

There is also a continuous need for adult chaperones for these meetings. Anyone who would be interested in helping out in this manner should contact Harold Fitch at 479-5646.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Rognlie, of 9534 West Hickory street are to be given an open house farewell party by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Plumly and Mr. and Mrs. Archie Estes. The party will be held on Thanksgiving day at the Estes home, 19345 S. Oak. Any of their friends are welcome to come and bid them farewell. The hours are from 3 p.m. to 6:00 p.m., and 7 to 9:00 p.m.

The Rognlies will leave for their new home in Virginia on Monday, Dec. 2.

Debbie Albert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Albert of 9501 West Birch ave., celebrated her fifth birthday with a childrens party on Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 19. Those children attending the party were: Kathy Burdett, Debbie Mangan, Kim Riesbeck, Elizabeth Albert and Artie Albert, cousins, Peggy O'Neill and Coleen O'Neill, and Cindy Pegram, all of Arbury Hills. In addition there were Julie Williams of Lyons and a cousin Vicky Schultz of Markham.

The favors were hand made by Mr. Albert's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Ray Pegram, Sr. were presented with their fourth child, another boy. The newcomer, a good sized nine pounds seven ounces, was named Michael Shawn.

He was born at the Silver Cross hospital, Joliet, Nov. 1, which, incidently, was also the birth date of their third child.

Bruce and Nancy Pegram, who live at 9325 West Willow Lane, have three older children, Bruce Ray, Jr., 6, Cynthia Lee, 4, and Jeffrey Scott, 3, have welcomed their new brother to their home.

Oldsmobile Adds New '64 Series

Oldsmobile's new Jetstar 88, along with the new F-85's, Dynamic and Super 88's, 98's and Starfires, is now on display at dealer showrooms across the nation and will appear in the Downers Grove Auto Show this week-end.

The new Jetstar 88, lower-priced companion to Oldsmobile's other famous, high performing 88's, is powered by the new Jetfire Rocket engine, an ultra-high compression, 330 cubic inch member of the Rocket engine family.

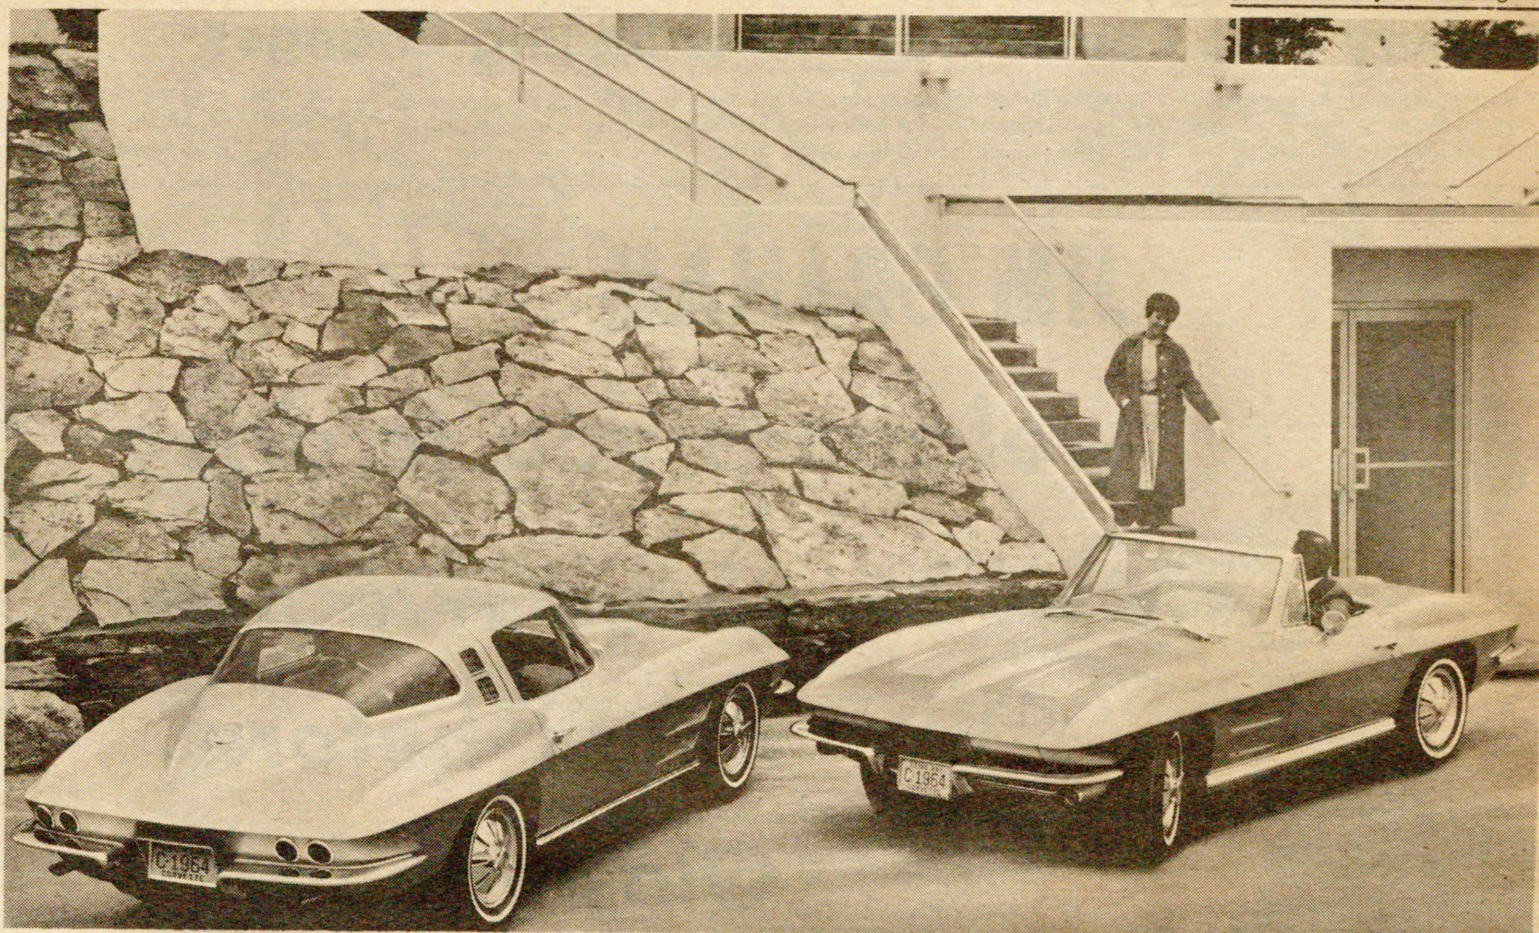

The Jetfire Rocket is a completely new engine, capping a long list of engineering firsts by Oldsmobile. It embodies an inverted 'A' cylinder block construction and integrated manifold and engine cover for a new standard of quietness of operation. It is outstandingly smooth, due to the rigidity of the crankcase and crankshaft. A new combustion chamber promotes instantaneous ignition. The cylinder block casting is manufactured by a foundry process called 'hot-box coring', the first time Oldsmobile's adaptation of this process has been applied to a production automotive engine. The new engine develops 245 horsepower with a 10.25 to 1 compression ratio.

The new Jetstar I, is equipped with bucket seats and console, and roof styling similar to the Starfire coupe.

The Starfire has been dramatically changed, to accentuate its performance image. The rear roof supporting structure is designed to further stress the sharp, crisp lines of the concave rear window. In the lower body a functional engine compartment air outlet is placed directly behind the front wheel opening. Inboard driving lamps are sports-car styled.

The 98 for 1964 is the most magnificent car Oldsmobile has ever produced. A new rear quarter profile further emphasizes the long, sleek look of this most luxurious Oldsmobile series.

Interior features include a completely new instrument panel. A new power console, extending from the engine cowl to the rear of the front seats, is standard on the 98 Custom Sports Coupe, the new

NEW STING RAY--Hottest production car made in America is this sleek 1964 Sting Ray Corvette. Major changes from last year include the new one piece rear window in the coupe and an interior ventilator system on both coupe and convertible.

Jetstar I, and the Starfires.

An industry exclusive on 1964 Starfires and the new Jetstar I, is a newly developed chambered exhaust system to emphasize the Starfire sound of muted power.

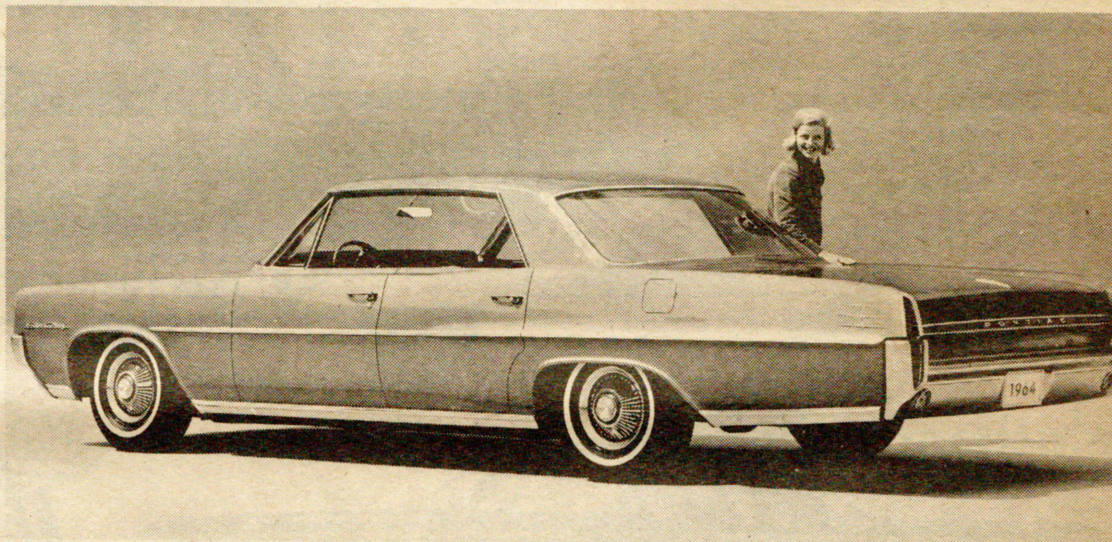

Big, powerful 394-cubic-inch Rocket engines, are standard on all Dynamic and Super 88's and 98's. Horsepower goes up to 330, with compression ratios as high as 10.25 to 1.

Even greater performance in Dynamic and Super 88's is gained through the use of a new rear axle ration, 3.08 to 1.

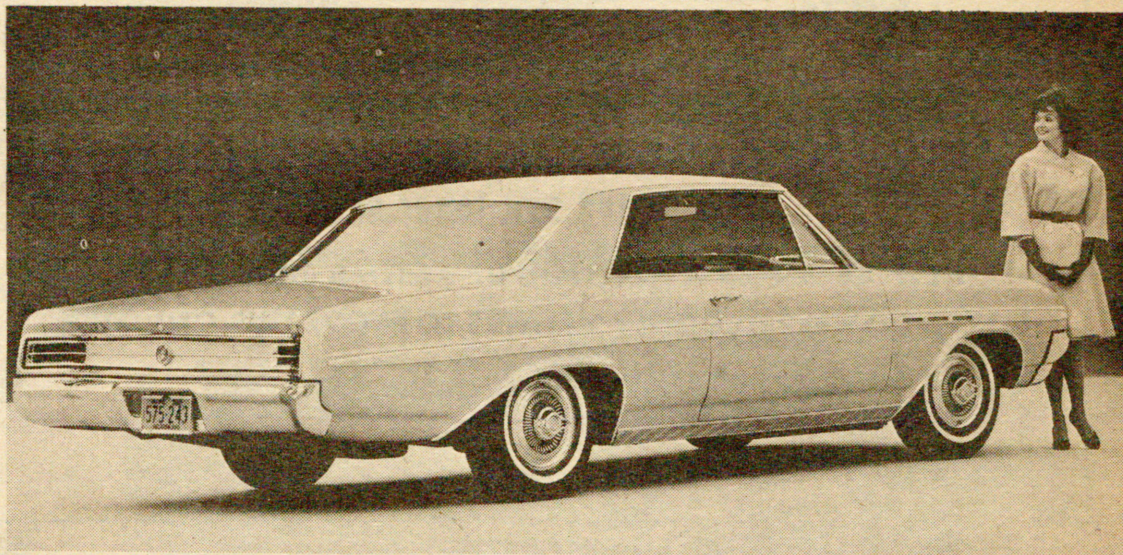

Front suspensions contain new pivot bushings on upper control arms for longer life and improved ride characteristics. Single piece construction of rear suspension lower control arms permits better alignment of differential for quieter operation under all load conditions.

New brake linings of an improved composition provide more effective braking and increased wear qualities. In addition, front brake drums are of heavier construction for better cooling.

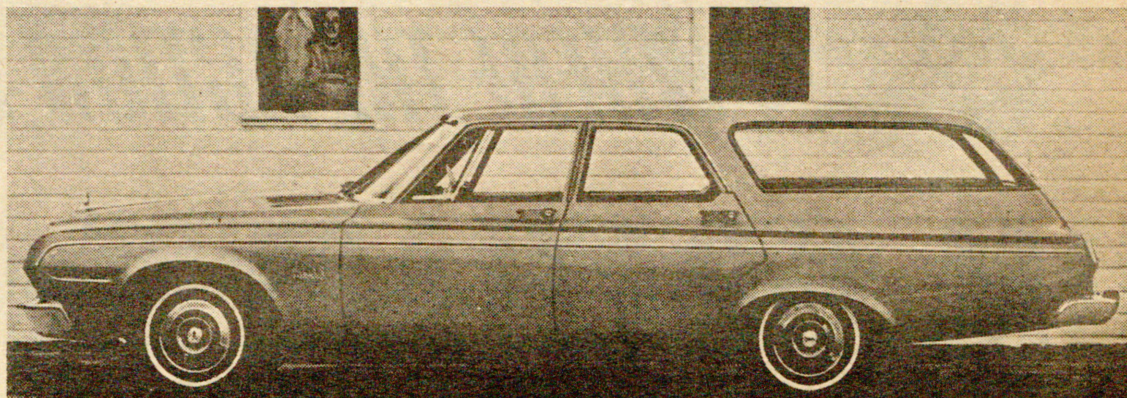

There are ten interior colors for 1964, including fresh new hues of bright red, aqua and green.

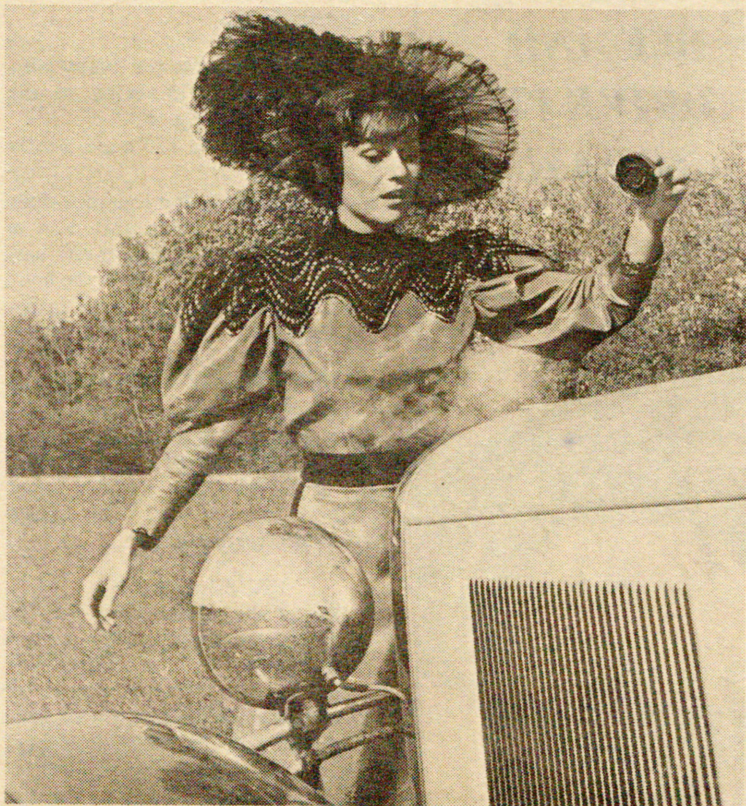

REAL BEAUTY--Matching the young lady in standout beauty is this 1964 Star Chief four door-hardtop Pontiac. Body side sculpturing sweeps the body lines into flared rear quarter panels. The Star Chief, the style leader of the Pontiac line is also available in a four door sedan.

SKYLARKING - With a car like this and a beautiful lady like this, life could certainly be a skylark. Anyhow the 1964 Buick Skylark is a fresh new and exclusive design, sporting an extra foot of length and a 300 cubic inch V8 engine tied to the new super turbine 300 torque converter transmission. Along with the sports coupe shown here Skylark has added a new four door sedan to the line.

FOR HORSEING AROUND -- This Plymouth Belvedere 4 door station wagon is a real work horse, and can be fun just horsing around. It has a floor length with tailgate open and 2nd and 3rd seats folded of 117 1/2 inches. There are 26 models of 1964 Plymouth and five engines from a thrifty 6 to a monster 426 cu. in. V-8.

STEAMED UP -- Those 'restored' 1931 Oldsmobiles are a lot of fun, but not when they start showing their age. Here Jody Beyer gets a little steamed up over her classic. Actually however, it runs quite well, and has been restored by an Olds agency for special events.

Mercury And Comet Have New Styling Changes

The 1964 Mercury is making a powerful bid for a control of the medium-price field this year. One of their prime reasons is of the '64 Mercury, the cars have brilliant engines and exceptional ride. The most elegant Mercury is the Park Lane, which features a 390 cu. in. V-8 as standard equipment with options up to 425 hp. Unusual items in this luxury car are cut-pile carpet, walnut-toned door panel insets, custom-grip door handles, vanity mirror on right side sun visor, red and white lower door courtesy lights and a padded instrument panel.

The lowest-priced Mercury is the Monterey. Standard items on this model are new long life seal-beam headlights, which last longer, central fuse panel and seamless color-keyed carpet and vinyl headlining.

COMET 404 4 DR.
STATION WAGON

The other major Mercury line of cars is the Comet series.

This exciting car has grown bigger, broader and racier. There are now two 6's and two 8's to choose from, plus sporty options like individually adjustable bucket seats, four speed floor mounted, stick shift, AM-FM radio, air conditioning, power steering and brakes and special interior walnut-styled trim and steering wheel.

Dodge 50th Anniversary Is This Year

In 1964 Dodge will mark a half century of building automobiles. From the beginning Dodge featured well-built, carefully-built cars. The dependability of Dodge carried General Pershing along the Mexican Border in a 1915 Dodge staff car.

This year the Dodge Dart and Custom 880 series reinforce that dependability.

There are Darts for every budget, from the 170 series to the hardtop station wagon. The low priced 170's are really big. The doors, for instance open wide enough to allow tall men to get in without losing their hat. With plenty of power under the hood and handling ease they make an excellent buy.

The Custom 880 convertible, one of four in the series, makes no apologies about being big. It is offered with a choice of two V-8 engines and a 3-speed floor-mount sport shift or an optional push button automatic transmission.

UNIQUE WAGONS

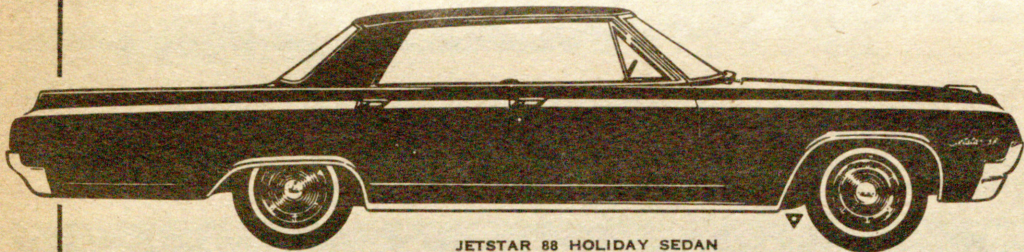

One of the unique cars for '64 is the Dodge Custom 880 hardtop station wagon. It has a cargo deck more than 10 feet deep and is over 49 inches wide. In addition the center area between the side doors, due to the elimination of the roof pillar, makes it easy to handle odd-sized loads.

It's offered in a two seat, six passenger model and a 3 seat nine passenger model.

Buick Offers Three New Engines In 1964 Models

At Flint, Mich., Sept. 18 Buick introduced its 1964 cars -- a line-up of 26 models that features two new super turbine transmissions providing up to 43 per cent more wheel thrust, along with three new engines and a host of styling changes that includes an all-new roomier Special series.

Here are some of the major highlights:

... Two new Super Turbine transmissions that improve performance and gasoline mileage. Both transmissions are lighter in weight and have fewer working parts.

... A new V-6 engine with greater cubic inch displacement that provides better performance for the larger Specials in which it is standard equipment.

... A compact new lightweight aluminum V-8 engine with a cast-iron block and 300-cubic-inch displacement that is the lightest weight V-8 on the market.

... A high-performance engine with two four-barrel carburetors, 10.25 to 1 compression ratio and 425-cubic-inch displacement.

... An entirely new Special line using a frame for the first time, with three inches more wheel-base and 11 1/2 inches additional length.

... A completely restyled lineup of LeSabre, Wildcat and Electra 225 models.

Buick's 26 new models come in six series - the Special, Skylark, LeSabre, Wildcat, Electra 225, and Riviera.

"We have fresh new styling that gives distinction to each series without sacrificing Buick's family resemblance," Rollert pointed out. "You can tell one Buick from another, but you also can recognize each one as a Buick."

The Riviera Sports coupe, introduced last year as a limited-production model, maintains its exclusive exterior styling. However, inside there are numerous interior refinements that add to its distinction.

The 300-cubic-inch aluminum V-8 engine combines the best features of last year's engine into the new powerplant. This engine is standard on the LeSabre and improves gasoline mileage as much as 16 per cent.

By using a cast-iron block, Buick engineers were able to increase the aluminum V-8 engine's displacement to 300 cubic inches without increasing block size. And through the use of aluminum cylinder heads, water-pump covers, intake manifold and many other parts, the advantage of light weight was retained. Optional on the Special and LeSabre series is the same V-8 engine with a four-barrel carburetor. For the first time, dual exhausts are available as an option on all Special V-8 models, except Estate Wagons.

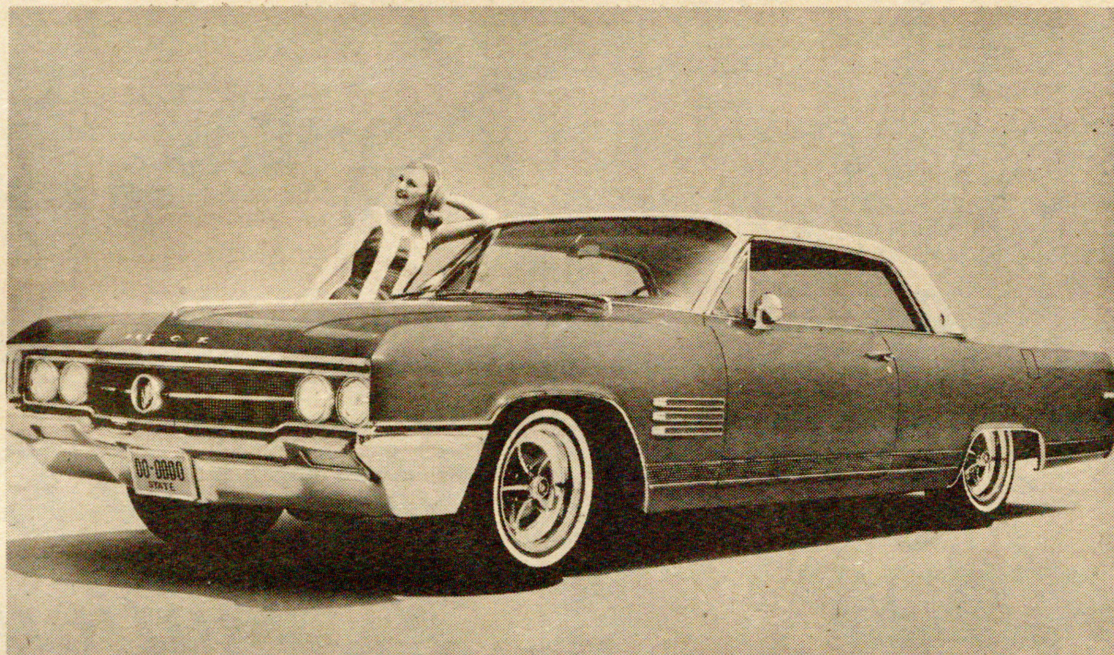

Some of the more salient styling features of the new models are:

Special series... longer, wider, roomier. Front bumper completely wraps around. Curved glass in the side windows integrates the lower body with the upper. Frame construction and added size improves ride and roadability. Added height gives easier access, more comfort.

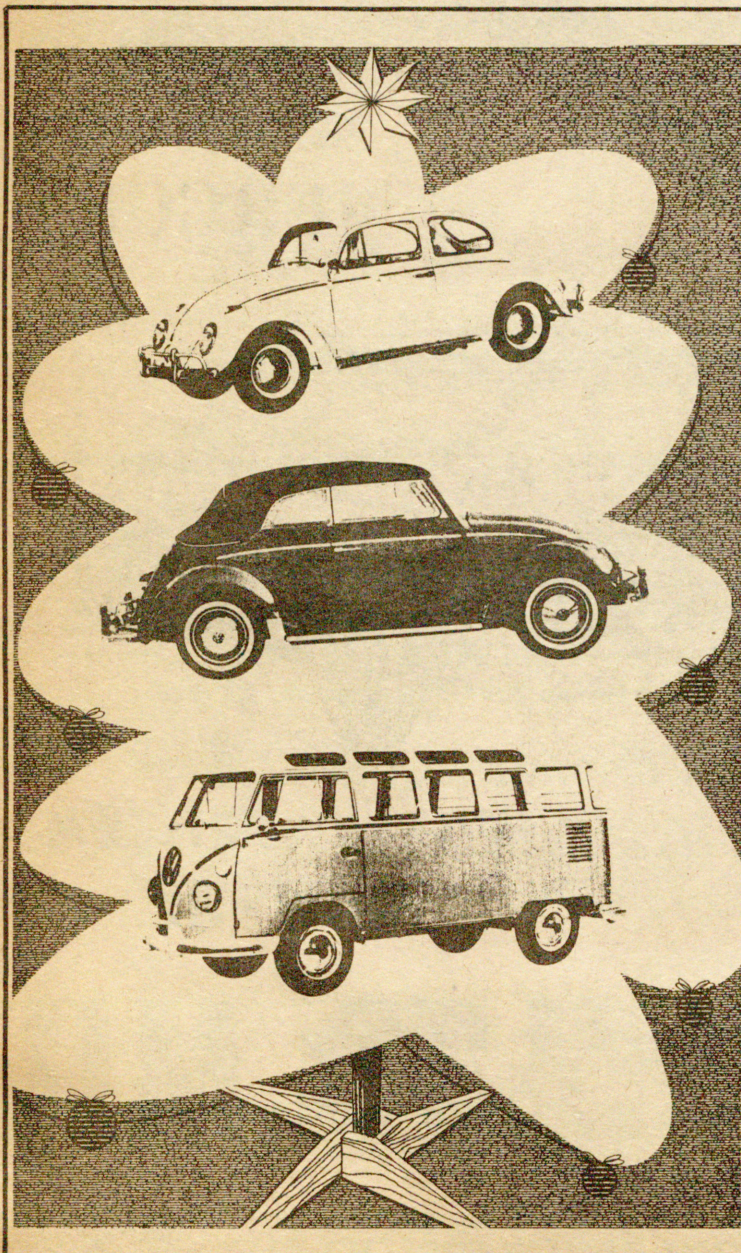

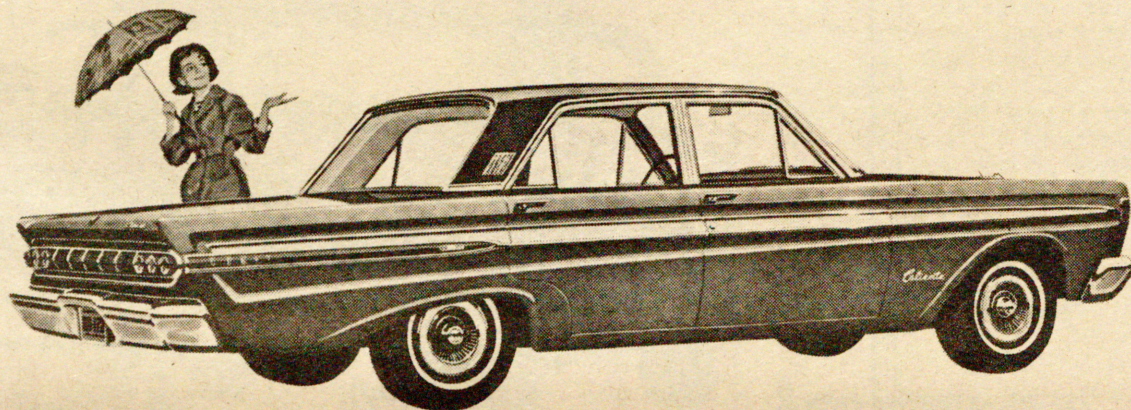

Skylark... four-door sedan added to lineup of convertible and two-door coupe. Frameless glass windows like the Riviera in the Skylark coupe... ventiports become integral part of side molding. New die-cast grille... special vinyl roof cover design.

LeSabre... wider, lower front appearance. New wrap-around bumper. New die-cast grille. Headlamps moved outward. New front fenders and hood. Horizontal tail lamps extend from back panel into rear quarters.

Wildcat... Exclusive new appearance. Ventiports are of new design and are placed one above the other. New four-door sedan

A REAL WILDCAT - Referring to the car of course, this new 1964 Buick Wildcat is noted for its outstanding good looks. The car, with its distinctive front end, features a floating center bar grill. In addition to the two door hardtop shown, the Wildcat comes in a four door sedan or hardtop and a convertible. A four speed manual transmission is optional equipment as well as a booming 425 cubic inch engine with a four pot carb.

CALIENTE '64--The hottest new Mercury Comet this year is the Caliente--turnpike-powered Cyclone V-8's with fully synchronized 3-speed manual transmission as standard equipment. Caliente interiors have warm, simulated walnut tones in instrument panel, door panels, and steering wheel... deep foam padding in front and rear seats... rich deep-loop, seamless carpeting... padded instrument panel, and long, foam-padded armrests are marks of luxury that set the 1964 Comet Caliente apart in its class.

HOT AND DEPENDABLE--This Dodge Polara 500 has deep padded bucket seats, snappy courtesy console, a fast-charging standard 383 cu. in. V-8 engine and knock-off wheel covers.

added to present lineup of two-door coupe, four-door hardtop and convertible. Wider choice of interior trims. Smart new grille enhances exclusive look.

Electra 225... distinctive grille treatment gives clean new front appearance. Cornering light restyled. New ventiports mounted flat against the fender. Vertical tail lights are integral parts of the rear fenders. Fender skirts enclosing the rear wheels coupled with full length moulding give the Electra a longer, lower appearance.

Aluminum four-wheel brakes are continued on all regular models, and brake drums on Special series cars are finned to increase cooling capacity.

The popular tilt steering wheel and cruise control options, introduced in 1963, on the regular size cars are now available as options on all Special series models.

'64 Fords Emphasize Proven Performance

The Ford line for 1964 has put the emphasis on performance. As a direct result of this durability, the super torque Fords are sold with a twice a year (or 6,000) mile maintenance feature that eliminates major chassis lubrication in a 3 year or 36,000 mile period, plus 6,000 miles or 6 months between oil changes.

NEW AUTO IDEA -- Leonard Saper, left, and father, Morris Saper of Joliet's Southtown Motors, 379 S. Chicago St. were among Chrysler dealers who gathered at Soldier's Field in Chicago recently for an opportunity to drive Chrysler Corporation's new gas turbine car. The engine, 10 years in development, includes no radiator, one fifth of normal moving parts, one sparkplug only, and offers less maintenance. Fifty such cars will be used by 200 typical motorists free of charge this year in a consumer test of turbine power.

A special feature of the Chevelle body is the use of curved side windows to give a lower look. A wide instrument panel is part of the distinctive interior styling which includes trim styles and materials color-keyed to the new exterior colors.

Built on a 115 inch wheelbase, the chassis is completely new, featuring a perimeter frame. Front suspension makes use of coil springs and rear suspension is of the coil spring four link type.

Fourteen inch wheels, self-adjusting Safety-Master brakes and a high capacity Delcotron generator are standard equipment. Four engines - two six-cylinder and two optional V8s - are offered on (Cont. On Page 14)

In its third year on the market, the Chevy II continues its popular blend of small car handling, roominess, economy and good taste in a total of 6 models in two series - the Nova and the 100 series.

A V8 engine will be offered for the first time as an extra-cost option on all models. With the V8, which will be Chevrolet's 283 cubic inch 195 horsepower model, the customer may choose either standard three-speed, optional four-speed or Powerglide transmissions.

Two six-cylinder engines at 120 and 155 horsepower will be available in all Chevy II models. The economical four-cylinder 90 horsepower engine will continue to be available in the two- and four-door sedans of the 100 series.

An important mechanical feature on all Chevy II models will be new, larger 9.5 inch self-adjusting brakes to give greater margin of stopping safety.

Entering its fifth year, the Corvair will continue its important place in the Chevrolet lineup by appealing to a group of buyers who like something sportier and less conventional in a small car.

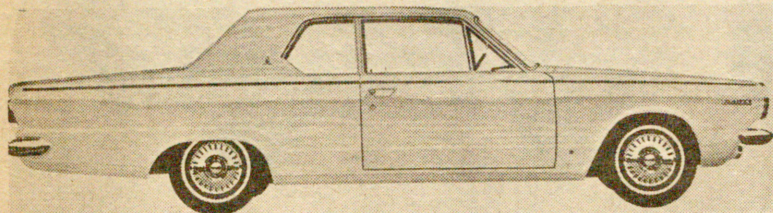

A Monza Spyder series comprised of a top-of-the-line convertible and club coupe is added for 1964, bringing the total models to seven in four series - the Monza 700 and 500 series, plus two Greenbrier Sports Wagons.

All Corvair will feature a new larger displacement 164 cubic inch engine that delivers higher performance and top economy. This new engine retains the six-cylinder air-cooled design. Horsepower ranges from 95 to 110 to 150.

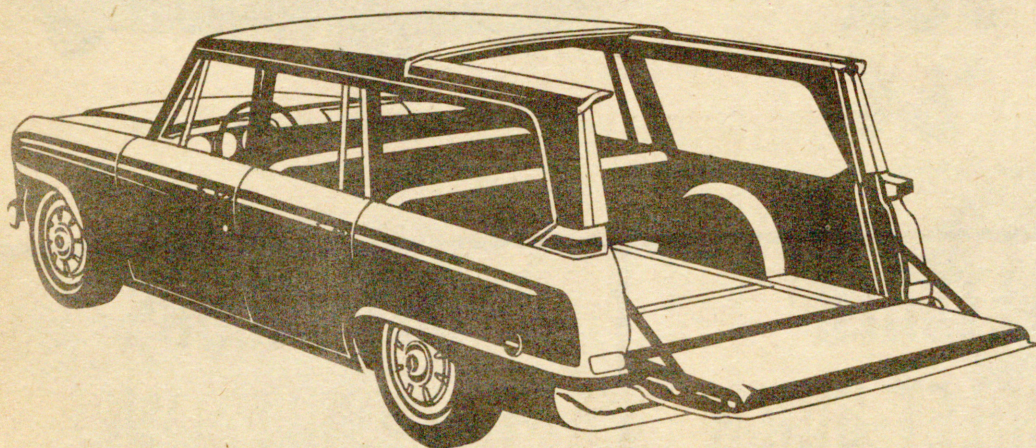

Improved brakes and a new suspension design will enhance handling characteristics of all Corvair models.

SLIDING ROOF -- This is the unique Studebaker Commander Wagonaire, the only station wagon in the new '64 models which features a sliding steel roof for high loads and fun in the sun.

THE GOOD LIFE -- Nothing compliments a formal occasion better than a beautiful woman, or, in this case, a handsome 1964 Oldsmobile. This is the new 1964 98 Holiday sports sedan. It is available in six body styles and powered by the Olds 394 cubic inch Rocket engine. Power steering, power brakes and hydra-matic transmission are standard equipment.

continues the famed design of its two Sting Ray models, the convertible and the sport coupe for 1964.

Improvements include a full view rear window on the sport coupe and better noise isolation, improvements in ride, handling and performance on both models.

New variable rate front and rear springs make the ride noticeably smoother and more comfortable without any sacrifice of roadability or handling precision.
